

Fair Use Policy

Updated 1st July 2019

About this Policy

This policy is applicable to any service provided by Infinite Networks. Infinite Networks may update the terms of this policy from time to time.

Prohibited use

You must not use or allow any person to use a service from Infinite Networks in what is to be reasonably considered to be;

- a breach of any law, code or regulatory standard;
- a breach of the Terms and Conditions of the Standard Form of Agreement with Red Telecom (“Customer Terms and Conditions”);
- likely to disrupt the provision of Services to other Red Telecom customers;
- designed to avoid any restrictions placed by Infinite Networks on a Service; or
- otherwise unreasonable or excessive.

Unless Infinite Networks has provided written consent, you are not to use or allow any person to use a Service to cause network throughput that is, in Infinite Networks opinion, usually high or continuous. This includes using a Service to support:

- substantial carrier or service provider data aggregation applications, or
- connections to facilitate carrier or service provider interconnection.

Breach of Fair Use Policy

Infinite Networks has the sole discretion to consider a customer within breach of this Fair Use Policy. Infinite Networks will notify you of the breach and request that you cease any prohibited activities.

If the prohibited activities continue then Infinite Networks will;

- limit, suspend or terminate a Service in accordance with our rights under the Our Agreement with You; and/or;
  - report your conduct to any relevant law enforcement or regulatory authority.
